New Debit Cards Coming in September!

Is your Adams State Bank debit card expiring in September? If so, you'll automatically receive a new card featuring our latest payment technology!

Your new debit card includes:

- Tap to Pay for fast, secure purchases
- Mobile Wallet compatibility
- Enhanced security and convenience

All cardholders will automatically receive our sleek Black Card. Want to show a little community pride instead? You can choose our Falcon Card or Community Card at no additional cost!

If you'd like one of our specialty designs, just let us know before your new card is issued, and we'll be happy to order it for you.

Questions or want to select a card design? Give us a call at 402-988-2255. We're always happy to help!

New Faces at Adams State Bank

We're excited to welcome two new faces to the Adams State Bank team!

Haley Pella – New Accounts Specialist

Haley joined us in May and serves as our New Accounts Specialist. She is your go-to contact for opening new accounts and assisting with specialized account needs. With a background in customer service, Haley is passionate about helping customers and making sure they have a positive experience from the moment they walk through our doors.

Dayna Anderson – Teller & Customer Service Representative

Dayna joined our team in June as a Teller and Customer Service Representative. With years of experience in education, she brings excellent communication, problem-solving, and people skills to her role. Dayna has already been a wonderful addition to our team and enjoys helping customers with their everyday banking needs.

We're so happy to have Haley and Dayna as part of the Adams State Bank family! If you haven't already, stop in, say hello, and help us give them a warm welcome!

Have a College Student Away From Home?

Now that the school year is underway and college students are settling into their new routines, it's a great time to make sure their banking is just as easy away from home as it is here!

A few simple steps can help keep their Adams State Bank account convenient, accessible, and secure:

Keep contact information current.

Make sure we have an up-to-date phone number and email address so we can easily reach the account holder if needed.

Take advantage of Mobile Banking.

Online banking gives you free, around-the-clock access to the Adams State Bank mobile banking app. Students can track daily transactions, check account balances, deposit checks right from their phone, pay bills using Bill Pay, and more.

Know where to find a surcharge-free ATM.

Your Adams State Bank debit card can be used nationwide. Visit MoneyPass.com to find surcharge-free MoneyPass ATMs near campus—or wherever your travels take you.

A little preparation can make managing money away from home much easier. And remember, even when your student is away at college, Adams State Bank is still right here when they need us!
